Christmas Movies Charades/Pictionary (picker's choice)

Directions:

- Each family member takes a turn either picking a Christmas movie slip (if the below movies are cut and placed in a hat, or is given a Christmas movie by someone acting as the game host/judge).
- After the person reads his/her Christmas movie, the person can then choose whether they would like to act out the movie (choose to play Charades) or draw their movie (choose to play Pictionary).
- The game can be played as teams or all family members shout out guesses, a judge needs to be selected to determine who first correctly guessed the movie
- When finished please email indicating whether your teen/family was brave enough to play Christmas Pictionary or Charades. Emailing the score from the game or a picture is welcome!
